

Regulation 3. PornfilmfestivalBerlin 2008

1. The organisers of the PornfilmfestivalBerlin is the "Jürgen Brüning Filmproduktion".
2. The completed entry form and preview DVD, must reach the festival in Berlin by May 1st, 2008. Please use a separate entry form for each film submitted (the form may be copied). All sections of the form are to be completed and every form must be signed. Stills (preferably digital) from the film should also be enclosed.
3. Films and videos submitted will automatically be considered for all suitable categories as well as for the special programs and the film market.
4. Film copies are insured for their print value for the duration of the festival.
Compensation claims must be made within 10 days after the film has been returned. All deliveries to and from the festival are at the risk of the sender.
Court jurisdiction is in Berlin.
5. The costs of sending viewing dvds & screening copies to the festival are to be paid for by the sender. This also applies to film copies sent on from other festivals, in which case the applying parties must make the appropriate arrangements with the relevant festivals!
6. All prints and video tapes from non-EU member states must be clearly marked with a customs declaration stating the following: "For cultural purposes only. No commercial value." Parcels from non-EU member states must also be accompanied by an invoice stating a value of no more than 10 Euro (under no circumstances should higher production costs be given). Costs arising from incorrect declarations will be charged to the account of the sender.
7. Only the following film and video formats will be accepted for screening purposes:
Film: 35 mm
Video: Mini-DV (Pal/NTSC)

If the original version of the film or video is in a language other than English or German, then the film must be subtitled in English. Those parties applying to the festival should only do so when they can guarantee that a screening copy of the film is available for the duration of the Festival. The screening copy must arrive no later than ten days before the festival begins.

8. Films & videos for competition may be no longer than 10 minutes. Exceptions may be made in certain cases.
9. No film may be withdrawn from the Festival program.
10. Notice of festival rejection will only be given when a legible email address has been included on the application form.
11. It is the responsibility of producers, distributors and or other applying organisations to ensure that permission has been obtained from all appropriate parties before submitting a film for selection to the festival.
12. All submitted DVDs remain in the archive.

The application deadline is the 1st of May 2008 (the earlier, the better!)

Please send us all viewing copies on Mini DV or DVD (PAL/NTSC) only!

Please send your Mini DVs/DVDs and the entry form to following address:
